

Dear Readers

Greetings from J-BNB. We are happy to have you in J-BNB family. J-BNB is published by VPM's B. N. Bandodkar College of Science, Autonomous, Thane Maharashtra, India. J-BNB is an scholarly online, open access, peer-reviewed and multidisciplinary scientific journal with an ISSN 2454-2776.

J-BNB is an open forum for authors, academicians, scientists, scholars, students and professionals, to publish their research work without delay. The subject matter of J-BNB is varied since we interpret the word 'Science' in its widest sense. Everything that relates to science is within the scope of J-BNB.

The editorial teams of J-BNB strive for excellent standards and thus has structured process in place for quality management. The editorial, editorial board, technical team, the national and internal board is in place and is growing. The review process is stringent, a double-blind review process. Our reviewers take a firm step to curb plagiarism of any kind. Thus, the authors have to follow the publication policy as stated in J-BNB.

The journal landscape in short is that the submissions to the journal is categorized under two headings 1) INSIGHT: This section includes perspectives, books or media reviews, series articles and viewpoint and 2) RESEARCH: This section includes research articles/ research papers, review articles and short communication.

The journal showcases its content in homepage with abstract, citation and the full paper on one click. This makes the paper easily accessible. It enables the readers to access and download the paper of their interest easily and effortlessly. This feature will help to reach a wider audience and rest will follow.

Future endeavors of J-BNB include applying for 'doi' for each paper, to get the journal indexed in Scopus and UGC care list. J-BNB invites authors, academicians, scientists, scholars, students and professionals, to publish their research work in J-BNB without delay.
